

introduced by Senator Pappas. (Read title.) The bill was read on January 18, referred to the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee for hearing, advanced to General File. There are Miscellaneous Subjects Committee amendments pending.

PRESIDENT: Chairman Hefner, of the committee.

SENATOR HEFNER: Senator Pappas is going to handle the committee amendments.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Pappas.

SENATOR PAPPAS: Mr. President and colleagues, can I ask the Clerk, is there a kill motion filed on the bill?

CLERK: Yes, sir.

SENATOR PAPPAS: Okay. Senator Lamb doesn't agree with the bill and finds some problems with it. So I asked him, instead of talking the bill to death for the 15 minutes, if he'd just file a kill motion so other people below us on the consent calendar will have a chance of getting their bills passed today. So, for the kindness of the other people within the body, so their bills can have a chance to get passed, I ask to pass over the bill.

PRESIDENT: If there is no objection, we will pass over the bill. We take up next LB 336.

CLERK: Mr. President, 336 was a bill that was introduced by the Business and Labor Committee and signed by its members. (Read title.) The bill was first read on January 17, referred to the Business and Labor Committee for hearing. The bill was advanced to General File. There are Business and Labor Committee amendments, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Chairman Barrett of the committee.

SENATOR BARRETT: Thank you, Mr. President, and members of the Legislature. The committee amendments to LB 336 provide that there should be some flexibility in the event of the acquisition of a business, one business buying another business. The unemployment contribution rate recalculation would simply be made at the end of the calendar quarter, rather than at some time during the quarter. This would
